

Maphakiso Maesela – The Projects Officer

Maphakiso is passionate about business and loves working in an environment where she is surrounded by business people. She is also passionate about entrepreneurship and believes that by investing in aspiring entrepreneurs you are building the future.

Through the MCCI she completed the Management Development Program facilitated by Wits Business School in 2016.

“Working for the Chamber where local economic development is a focus, is a dream come true for me.”

Maphakiso has been working in the industry for the last 3 years. She explored other avenues for a small period of time, but her passion for business pulled her back to the Chamber.

She met her partner 8 years ago but they only officially started dating 3 years ago. They recently got married and are the proud parents of a little girl. All her free time is spent with the family. Maphakiso is a true soul sister, she loves listening to old jazz music.

“Success for me is waking up every day to do what I love and by being surrounded by people that will always have my back.

She goes for what she wants, knows her strengths and devotes a lifetime to the art of developing and mastering her natural abilities as well as finding ways to work within the boundaries of her weakness. If you want to get things done now, she is your “go to” person.

Her friends agree that she can be opinionated, driven and always ready to assist where needed.

What we don't know about her is that Maphakiso loves debating & public speaking. She was part of the debating team and the public relationship officer in High School.

Motto in life –
“If you can dream it you can do it.”
